Dear Sir,

SOCIETY DINNER.

Following the recommendation of members at the last Annual General Meeting, your committee has arranged a Dinner at the Ailesbury Arms Hotel, Marlborough on Tuesday, 24th November, at 7.p.m. for 7-45 p.m. The price will be 21/- per person.

The principal guest will be Mr. Tom Scott, Editor of Golf Illustrated. We shall also have the pleasure of entertaining the President and Captain of the Somerset Golf Captains' Society.

The room at the Ailesbury Arms will accommodate a maximum of 70 people and the first 70 applications will be accepted. Members may bring a guest (male) if they wish to do so.

So that the atmosphere shall not be too formal, lounge suits will be the order of the day, but we would like to see members adorned with the Society tie.

Your committee hope that this may be the first of what will become an annual event. I have to let the hotel know the final numbers on Monday, 23rd November. Therefore, I would be grateful if you would return the slip at the bottom of this letter by Saturday, 21st November, at the latest. It would help me considerably if you would send a cheque with your request for places.

Yours sincerely,

John Lumley.
