THE WILTSHIRE GOLF CAPTAINS' SOCIETY.

SECRETARY'S REPORT 1963/64.

Membership over the last year has increased by eight and our strength now stands at 77. It was only to be expected that the influx of members would decline once we had signed up all "the old guard" from the various clubs.

£117-16-9

The finances of the Society, I am glad to say, are healthy. We have £119. 1. 3d. in the bank; during the year, income has exceeded expenditure by £6. 10. 3d. The meetings are run on a separate account and show a slight profit.

On the playing side, we have had an eventful year. The foursome competition, at North Wilts, for the Burr ridge Salvagers was a great success, only marred by the unfortunate absence, through illness, of Bill Burr ridge himself. In October our team strove gallantly in the High Post Invitation Team Foursomes and almost unseated Ferndown in the first round. This excitement proved too much for some of us whose play deteriorated lamentably in the secondary competition. In April, a number of members played in the Bideford Bay Foursomes. By all accounts an enjoyable time was had by all. My wife and I were most grateful for the the kind present which was sent us by those who went to Devon. The Spring Meeting at South Wilts was well supported and the Captains' Prize was won by Frank Conway. In July, our Society again surprised itself by pulling off another win against the Somerset Captains' at Bath - they will be after our "blood next year ! We just managed not to come last in the North Wilts, Foursomes !

Once again, I must express my sincere gratitude to Col. Littlewood and his staff at Agriculture House for so kindly preparing notices of meetings. In this connection, my thanks are also due to Leslie Whamond.

Our Society can only be as good as its members wish it to be. I am deeply grateful for the support given me by your Committee and you, the members who come along and play,. There are, however, a number of members from whoa we never hear? don't be ashamed of your swing, it might be a great source of comfort for others!
